SOURCE

1. In May 1951 the Hungarian government started a project for the deportation of Hungarian citizens from the Baranya district in southwestern Hungary, west of Mohacs along the Yugoslav border. The operation was being carried out slowly but systematically. It is not stated when or whether it was terminated.
2. A large state-controlled leather-goods factory has been moved from Mohacs to Baja, somewhat farther from the frontier. A state-controlled textile factory in Mohacs is also scheduled to be moved to an unspecified location in the near future.
